Tour Title:

Haifa

Tour Subtitle:

Live City Tour

Tour Date:

23. May 2021

Haifa - located between the Carmel Mountain and the Mediterranean Sea - is generally considered a positive example of coexistence between Jews, Muslims and Christians or between Israelis and Palestinian Israelis. Yet, this image has suffered during the recent escalation. If you are curious to learn about Haifa's history, present, religious diversity, society and the current state of coexistence, join this live city tour with our wonderful guide Noam Yatsiv.

Content Left Column:

Our very knowledgeable and sympathetic tour guide Noam Yatsiv will take us on a tour through Haifa. Unlike many other Israelis who tend to move away from the city - he chose Haifa to be his adopted home. After beginning with a short general overview over the history of Haifa, he will take us on a tour to the Bahá'í gardens, the historic German colony, the Palestinian quarter Wadi Nisnas and to the port neighborhoods of the city.

Throughout the whole tour Noam himself will illustrate the recent developments and escalation in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and the way it affects the living realities on site. We will also be probably meeting more residents of Haifa during the tour.
