ARABIC-LANGUAGE-COURSE-Level 2

Tour Title:

Arabic Language Course

Tour Subtitle:

Elementary (Level 2)

Tour Date:

03. February 2023 to 07. April 2023

Since you now know how to greet, introduce yourself and ask questions about people, places, and directions; we plan on equipping you with a variety of new vocabularies, including family, time and plans,desires, and professions, among others.

This series of Arabic lessons will be dedicated to teaching the daily-spoken Levantine dialect. We will surely come across words from the Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) language, or as officially known as “Fos-ha”, however, we elected to teach you a language you can use with your friends, not the one required to do your PhD!

Why us?

Learning Arabic was never easier! Online access to our digital classes through Alsharq REISE allows learning your favorite language from the comfort of your home. We meet once a week to take a closer look at Arabic together, learn about the language's history, alphabet, and guide you smoothly to reading, writing, and speaking one of the most poetic languages known.

This series of Arabic courses will be dedicated to teaching the daily-spoken Levantine dialect. We will surely come across words from the Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) language, or as officially known as “Fos-ha”, however, we elected to teach you a language you can use with your friends.

What should you expect?

In this learning level, we will build on your existing knowledge (see contents of previous Level here [1]) of basic vocabs and grammars to improve your comprehension using new topics, help you practice the words you know, and support your established skills, in addition to employing this knowledge in real life scenarios. With the help of the Arabic Language booklet - designed by your teacher Lilas, Level 2 is designed to utilize the words you are learning to carry out a meaningful short conversation, order your favorite “Shami” platter, shop around Arab markets for your desired merchandises, and talk about such topics in different tenses. As you experienced in the first level, we will make sure that we have fun learning using in-class activities, videos, and songs.

What are the learning objectives?

Since you now know how to greet, introduce yourself and ask questions about people, places, and directions; we plan on equipping you with a variety of new vocabularies, including family, time and plans,desires, and professions, among others. At the end of this ten-class course, you will be able to:

- Converse about a range of interesting topics such as family, Jobs,time, schedules, plans, and likes and dislikes using new themed vocabularies.
- Order food in your favorite Arabic restaurant and buy groceries from the local corner shop.
- Use a variety of verbs in present simple, and future tenses.
- Talk about past events using was,were, and used to.
- Use the adverbs of time and propositions.
- Practice reading and writing skills.

Why Levantine?

Learning a language is always about engaging with the community and getting a true sense of what that language represents to locals, and how they interact on a daily basis. That's why we chose for our course the Levantine dialect, one of the six main varieties of colloquial Arabic spoken across the Arab world, as it is the main vernacular spoken in Syria, Lebanon, Palestine and Jordan. Compared to the Modern Standard Arabic (MSA), used more formally, Levantine dialect is easier to pronounce and understand, widely spoken, and more accessible, being adopted by most of the art and cultural movements in the Arab world.
