Tour Title:

Arabic Course B 2.2

Tour Date:

05. May 2026 to 07. July 2026

Welcome to Arabic course, Level B2-2, a practice-focused course designed to help you consolidate, activate, and master the Arabic you've already learned. Instead of introducing new topics, this course gives you the space to slow down, revisit, and fully integrate key vocabulary, verb forms, and structures from previous levels.

This course is ideal if you've ever felt overwhelmed by the amount of vocabulary or if you understand more than you can actively use. The goal here is to bridge that gap — transforming passive knowledge into confident, spontaneous communication.

Using guided speaking activities, targeted practice, and interactive tasks, you will strengthen accuracy, improve fluency, and gain more control over the language you already have.

Why Levantine?

Learning a language is always about engaging with the community and getting a true sense of what that language represents to locals, and how they interact on a daily basis. That's why we chose for our course the Levantine dialect, one of the six main varieties of colloquial Arabic spoken across the Arab world, as it is the main vernacular spoken in Syria, Lebanon, Palestine and Jordan. Compared to the Modern Standard Arabic (MSA), used more formally, Levantine dialect is easier to pronounce and understand, widely spoken, and more accessible, being adopted by most of the art and cultural movements in the Arab world.

Who is this course for?

This course is ideal if you've ever felt overwhelmed by the amount of vocabulary or if you understand more than you can actively use. The goal here is to bridge that gap, transforming passive knowledge into confident, spontaneous communication.

Throughout the course, we return to familiar themes, such as identity, media, relationships, daily life, and culture, but approach them with greater depth and complexity. You'll engage in extended conversations, role-plays, and real-life scenarios that push you to reuse and recycle language in meaningful ways.

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Activate and confidently reuse previously learned vocabulary and verbs across a wide range of familiar topics.
- Speak more fluently and spontaneously by reducing hesitation and increasing automatic language recall.
- Strengthen control over key grammatical structures through repeated use in context.

Content Right Column:

- Express ideas with greater clarity, precision, and flexibility in extended conversations.
- Participate in discussions, role-plays, and real-life scenarios using appropriate tone and register.
